I wish to apply for Non-practising registration effective: _____ (dd/mm/yyyy)

I understand that:

- I am maintaining an "inactive" registration with the College of Midwives of BC (CMBC) until I apply and am approved for return to practice under bylaw 60;
- As a Non-practising registrant, I may use the title "Non-practising midwife" or "RM (non-practising);
- By changing to non-practising status, I only have liability insurance coverage for prior acts;
- I remain responsible for payment of my practicing registration fee up until my non-practising effective date and the annual non-practising fee after that time;
- My NRP, CPR and emergency skills certifications may be allowed to lapse during my non-practising period;
- I am responsible for ensuring that my NRP, CPR and emergency skills certification is current prior to returning to practice;
- I must consider the implications of my non-practising period on my ability to meet active practice requirements and other competency and currency of skills requirements established under bylaw 63 where applicable; and
- I must complete and submit to CMBC the Application for Return to Practice prior to the date I wish to return to practice.

Payment (please select one of the following):

- Please deduct my annual Non-practising registration fee from the refund of my registration fee.¹
- I will pay my annual Non-practising registration and change of registration class administration fees online by credit card through my account on the CMBC website.
- I attach or will send a cheque covering my annual Non-practising registration and change of registration class administration fees.²
